

Let's hit the road:

30 HOURS DRIVER EDUCATION

1. Between age 15 and 15-1/2: enroll in an online or classroom Driver Education class at Teen Road to Safety a DMV State Licensed Driving School. Complete thirty (30) hours of classroom or online instruction required by DMV.

2. You've earned your Certificate of Completion!

APPOINTMENT FOR PERMIT

3. Make a DMV office visit appointment at www.dmv.ca.gov. Check the DMV's list for items to bring to your appointment, including your Certificate of Completion.

BEHIND THE WHEEL TRAINING

4. The DMV requires a minimum of six (6) hours of professional Behind the Wheel Driver Training. Call Teen Road to Safety and book your first two (2) hour Behind the Wheel lesson to validate your Provisional Permit once you receive it.

FIRST BEHIND THE WHEEL LESSON/VALIDATE PERMIT

8. Complete your first Behind the Wheel lesson with Teen Road to Safety to validate your Provisional Permit mit.

7. Remind your parents to add you to their automobile insurance policy, if required.

6. You've earned your Provisional Permit!

PARENT-SUPERVISED INSTRUCTION

9. A California licensed parent or adult age 25 years or older will also need to ride with you for a total of fifty (50) hours of driver instruction, including ten (10) hours at night.

PROVISIONAL PERMIT APPOINTMENT

5. At the DMV, you will need to complete/pass the knowledge test.

PARENT-SUPERVISED INSTRUCTION

12. Complete remaining hours for a total of 50 hours of supervised practice with a California licensed adult 25 years or older.

FINAL BEHIND THE WHEEL LESSON

14. Right after you have booked your DMV appointment, call Teen Road to Safety to book your final Behind the Wheel lesson for the same week of your DMV appointment. This lesson will include DMV test preparation at your selected DMV location.

DRIVING EXAM

16. Take your Driving Exam.

10. Complete 25 or more hours of practice and approximately 8-12 weeks after validating your permit, call Teen Road to Safety to book your second Behind the Wheel lesson.

BOOK APPOINTMENT FOR DRIVING EXAM

13. 6 Months + 1 day from Provisional Permit issue date: With your Permit, Gold Certificate of Completion of Behind the Wheel Driver Training, current registration, proof of insurance and 50 hours of parent-supervised driver training, make an appointment at the DMV to apply for your Provisional Driver License!

15. Be sure to check the DMV for any additional items required to bring to your appointment.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You are now a Licensed Driver!

Don't drive distracted!
Stay alert and safe!

SECOND BEHIND THE WHEEL LESSON

11. Complete your second Behind the Wheel lesson with Teen Road to Safety.

START

FINISH